Our Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Wenceslaus, believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered by Baptism to pass on, to share, and to witness God's truth. As His people, through worship, we are nourished by the Eucharist and the word, and sent forth with Christ to build God's Kingdom in our local community and in the world.

Greetings to All! Today is All Saints day. Today we celebrate the victory of all the saints. They are enjoying their reward and that should give us joy too.

Everyone of us is called to experience true joy in the midst of life's harshest suffering. Everyone of us is called to holiness, to mature friendship with Jesus Christ. That is what we were created for. The happiness we all yearn for can come from no other source: not from money, success, fame, popularity, pleasure, not even from falling in love. Man is made to live in communion with God, in whom he finds happiness.

In the Second Reading it states: "Beloved, see what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God." It is God's grace that transforms normal bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. So to God's love and grace will transform us from selfish sinners into stouthearted saints, if we let Him.

To find the joy of holiness, we must come to Jesus in the midst of our trials and crosses, staying close to Him through prayer, confession, and the Eucharist. Only then, will we learn how trustworthy He is, and discover the secret to joy amidst sorrow. God has given us the tools we need to follow in the footsteps of the saints. All we have to do is use them.

Your servant in Christ, Deacon Martin

The Altar Society will have a special remembrance of those that passed away last year: Carol Korson, Wensel Kolarik, Mary Jelinek, Minnie Schroeder, and Marie Elizabeth Kingscote. This will be done before Mass on Sunday.

Father Michael will hear confessions on Thursday from 5:30-6:30 p.m.

The Pastoral Council will meet tomorrow, Monday, November 2 at 7:00 p.m. in the Church basement. Masks are required.
