

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Wenceslaus, believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered by Baptism to pass on, to share, and to witness God's truth. As His people, through worship, we are nourished by the Eucharist and the word, and sent forth with Christ to build God's Kingdom in our local community and in the world.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today we celebrate The Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, Luke 14:1-7-14, Jesus tells the parable of guests being invited to a banquet, some taking a seat of honor. He tells them to take a lesser seat so that when the master comes he may invite you to move up in position. Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.

This law of humility, goes directly against everything this fallen world teaches us. It's extremely hard for us to swallow, which is why Jesus explained it by using this unambiguous parable.

But more than that, Jesus, the Lord of heaven, humbled Himself, came to earth and purposefully took the lowest place possible — that of a condemned criminal. He freely took on the most humiliating form of death — crucifixion. He allowed Himself to be stripped of every honor. He allowed His reputation to be dragged through the mud by the lies and corruption of His enemies. And yet, because he humbled himself so thoroughly, he has been glorified so magnificently.

Following the Law of Humility leads to interior peace, joy, wisdom, and a greater share in God's glory, this is what Christ wants for us. The more we grow in humility, the more we will experience those things.

Jesus humbles himself every day in the Holy Eucharist, reminding us that humility is the secret to a fulfilling and fruitful life. Thank him for that, and when we have him in our hearts, let's ask him for this favor, that he is so eager to give us: Lord Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make our hearts more and more like yours.

Your servant in Christ, Deacon Martin
