

How can I repay the Lord for all the good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Lord, I am your servant.

Psalms 116:12-14, 16a

Our Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Wenceslaus, believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered by Baptism to pass on, to share, and to witness God's truth. As His people, through worship, we are nourished by the Eucharist and the word, and sent forth with Christ to build God's Kingdom in our local community and in the world.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today we celebrate The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, Luke 16:19-31, Jesus tells the Pharisees about a rich man who lived in luxury while a poor man, Lazarus, lay at his door with little to eat. They both die. The poor man was carried to the bosom of Abraham, while the rich man was in the netherworld. The rich man calls to Abraham to send Lazarus to give him a drop of water to cool his tongue. Abraham tells the rich man he cannot because there is no crossing between the two. The rich man asks Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers about their way of life. Abraham tells him that they have the prophets and the commandments. If they do not believe them, they will not believe some one who rises from the dead.

Death is final for both men. There is no changing the outcome after death. Our destination is determined by our actions here on earth. We have the Church, the Sacraments, Scripture, and fellow Christians walking with us to assist us in life here on earth. We also have Jesus Christ who rose from the dead. We have more than the rich man to guide us in this life in preparation for eternity. The consequence for our actions depends on what we do here. It is not that the rich man was a bad person, he just ignored Lazarus who was in need. He did not use his talent and gifts from God to help anyone but himself. He was self centered. His life revolved only around himself.

To love our neighbor is to go beyond ourselves, helping them spiritually as well a physically. We are invited to reach out and literally touch the poor. Pope Francis has said that we must come close enough to share the smell of the sheep. We are to walk with them, not around them. Our destination depends on what we do here on earth.

Your servant in Christ, Deacon Martin

READINGS FOR THE WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

Monday	September 26	Luke 9:46-50
Tuesday	September 27	Luke 9:51-56
Wednesday	September 28	Luke 9:57-62
Thursday	September 29	John 1:47-51
Friday	September 30	Luke 10:13-16
Saturday	October 1	Luke 10:17-24
Sunday	October 2	Luke 17:5-10

St Wenceslaus Feast Day is September 28. We will celebrate this Sunday with a pot-luck breakfast in the Parish Hall, immediately after the 8:30 a.m. Mass. Meat, juice, milk, and coffee are provided. Parishioners are asked to bring egg, potato, fruit dishes, sweet rolls or any thing you enjoy for breakfast. Help will be needed, in the kitchen, receiving donated dishes, serving, and cleaning up after. Please plan to be a part of the help.

Altar Society: Will meet Tuesday, October 4 at 7 p.m. in the Church basement.

The Saturday evening Mass will continue with guest priests for the next two months. Deacon Martin is looking for priests to continue the Mass. We welcome Fr. Wayne Dziekan, who will celebrate Mass with us this Saturday.

Elections will take place soon. There is a very important proposal that you must read carefully before you make your decision. The proposal covers many aspects of health care for everyone. It is important that everyone eligible to vote be registered.

If you know of anyone, or any organization that is in need of assistance, please contact the parish office or Deacon Martin who will pass it on to the tithing committee.
