Our Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Wenceslaus, believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered by Baptism to pass on, to share, and to witness God's truth. As His people, through worship, we are nourished by the Eucharist and the word, and sent forth with Christ to build God's Kingdom in our local

For All St. Wenceslaus Parishioners

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel: Luke 18: 1-8, Jesus asks us to pray always without becoming weary. He tells a parable about a judge who neither feared God or respected any human being. A widow who came to him asked for a decision against her adversary. She was persistent. The judge finally ruled in her favor, just to get rid of her.

Jesus states that if an unfair judge will give a good ruling out of a persistence, how much more will a loving father do for persistent prayer. He asks us to pray often, not to change God's mind, but to learn what God has in mind for us. What is His plan for us, and to have faith to accept it.

We need prayer so that we can see the good things God does for us, to open our eyes every day to see the glory around us. We need prayer to help us to give gratitude for His many blessings and to be more aware of God in our life, so we don't just stumble through life, enduring the ups and downs of life in a mundane matter, thinking that this is all there is and never being really satisfied.

We pray to get to know God in a personal way, to increase our wisdom and love of God and neighbor, to change who we are and live in alignment with God's decrees, with faith in the promises of Jesus Christ. So that when the Son of man comes at the end of the world, end of our life, He will find faith and that we are among those who will be counted as having faith.

Your servant in Christ, Deacon Martin

The priests of the diocese will be away this week on retreat. There will be daily Mass only on Monday and none the rest of the week.

Stewardship Reflections: "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are Gods." Everything we are and everything we own belongs to God. We aren't owners of anything. We are merely stewards of things God has given to each of us. This is the essence of stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else should come second, especially our money.
