

For the Love of Life
In all its forms.

Everything lives for the love of Him. Even the stones shout the incredible intimacy and intricacy of His Creation. The molecules in rock, are composed of atoms, made of neutrons and protons spinning relentlessly when seen under a microscope proclaim Him. His electricity, the blood of life, powers all.

And ‘Who wrote the book on Love?’ According to Brittanica this song was first recorded by The Monotones in 1957. The first verse follows...

*I wonder, wonder who, who-oo-ooh, who
(Who wrote the book of love)
Tell me, tell me, tell me
Oh, who wrote the Book Of Love
I've got to know the answer
Was it Someone from above
(I wonder, wonder who, mmbadoo-ooh, who)
(Who wrote the Book Of Love)*

I was two when it came out.

They were on to something. Who indeed, wrote the Book of Love?

As recorded by some men and a few woman, the Word wrote the Book of Love in all His grand and magnificent omnipotence and omnipresent, I always start the day with this Book, the Biblos (Greek), the Bible in our case. Today started off with Ben Sirach saying in Sirach chapter four,

*“Wisdom breathes life into her children and admonishes those who seek her.
He who loves her loves life;
those who seek her will be embraced by the Lord.”*

Sirach always refers to Wisdom as aa ‘Her’ and comparison to the Holy Spirit is a constant thread in his writings. As in love for ‘Her’.

We are so blessed that God gave himself for us. It is why I see His creation in everything. The physics prove Him more than anything, because while science can not explain everything, it is the window into the Omnipresence and Omnipotence of He Who created us all in His Image and Likeness. Wonder after wonder is being exposed through space based and land-based telescopes, not to mention what we find with so many other technological devices.

Love life. In doing so we follow the two most basic commandments and through them are given the gift of true life.

1. Love Him
2. Love everyone made in His Image and Likeness and all of Creation.

The Joy in life is being good stewards of the land He has ‘rented to us’ free of charge. See the joy in life. It is everywhere, from the most majestic mountain to the fruited plain.

Don’t waste another moment. Ever.
