Our Mission Statement

We, the people of St. Wenceslaus, believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we are empowered by Baptism to pass on, to share, and to witness God's truth. As His people, through worship, we are nourished by the Eucharist and the word, and sent forth with Christ to build God's Kingdom in our local community and in the world.

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Today we celebrate The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, Mark, 6:7-13, Jesus sends out His disciples two by two and gave them power over unclean spirits. They were to take nothing with them. No money, no food, nor any extra clothes. Stay in a house that accepts them. If not accepted, to move on to the next town. They were to preach of repentance and to prepare for the coming of Jesus to their town.

The message was to go out of their homes, out of their comfort zone to evangelize. That's His instruction for us, too. We all have different careers and professions. But we are all called to be a Christian. To be a Christian requires us to be a missionary in our own home town, where we are. He is sending us.

Jesus tells us not to take our security blankets: money, food, or extra clothes. We are to trust in Him to provide. He will give us what we need. He will give us the words to say in all situations. Our job is to listen to that inner voice of Jesus within us. This is something we have to learn through prayer, not technology. Only God is God. Trust in the Lord.

Jesus also tells us we will experience rejection. Don't let it get you down. Move on to the next person, the next town. Learn from it. It may not be the right time for them. We are missionaries for God the father, who makes us an offer we can refuse. He is not the Godfather who makes us an offer we can't refuse. We all have a choice to move on.

We are to preach the good news. We are to also preach to the bad news, the consequence of sin. We cannot change humanities make up, or our DNA. We are not God, we don't have to fix what God has created; sin dehumanizes us. Sin makes us less than what God has intended for us.

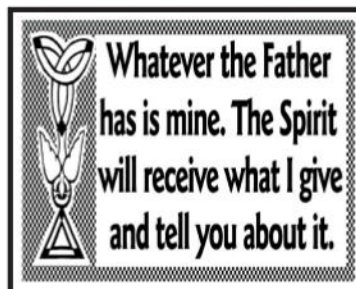

Keep the faith. May your faith be not only in Jesus, but in Jesus' way, that it is best for us and others. Trust in Jesus in all situations.

Your servant in Christ, Deacon Martin

We welcome Fr. Robert Nalley and thank him for celebrating Mass with us today. He is here to speak for Food for the Poor.

The 2024 Catholic Services Appeal (CSA): Thank you to everyone who responded so generously to the 2024 Catholic Services Appeal (CSA). Although we have met our goal, we had small participation. Please make a donation if you have not yet participated. No pledge or donation is too big or too small.

Phyllis Korson will no longer be leading the cleaning projects and making sure the halls are ready for various activities. The Parish needs one or two people to step forward and accept this position, please. Information is available for this ministry. Contact Deacon Martin if interested and for more information.

This is the third year dedicated to the Eucharist. This is the great goal: that I (each of us) would learn how to be Jesus in the world. St. Teresa of Avila said: "Christ has no body but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which He looks with compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which He blesses the world." The Word Among Us, June 2024
